number of days by which the originally stipulated period is exceeded, in accordance with the following scale: -

1 to 4 additional days, 0.50%;

5 to 8 additional days, 1%;

If, however, after having served notice to Buyers as above, Sellers fail to hand over within such 8 days, then the contract shall be deemed to have called for acceptance during the originally stipulated period plus 8 days, at contract price less 1%, and any settlement for default shall be calculated on that basis. If any allowance becomes due under this clause, the contract price shall be deemed to be the original contract price less the allowance and any other contractual differences shall be settled on the basis of such reduced price.

7. PERIOD OF SHIPMENT

(a) The bill(s) of lading (or intermodal transport document(s)) to be dated when the goods are actually on board the expected first vessel, or

The date of the bill(s) of lading shall be accepted as proof of date of shipment in the absence of evidence to the contrary. Other dates, if any, appearing on a multimodal transport document shall not invalidate "On Board" date. In any month containing an odd number of days, the middle day shall be accepted as being in both halves of the month.

(2) Not later than 1600 hours on the next business day, if received after 1600 hours or on a non-business day.

(d) A notice of appropriation served on a Selling Agent or Brokers named in the contract shall be considered an appropriation served on Buyers. A Selling Agent or Brokers receiving a notice of appropriation shall serve like notice of appropriation in accordance with the provisions of this clause. Where the Shipper or subsequent Sellers serves the notice of appropriation on the Selling Agent, such Selling Agent may serve notice of appropriation either direct to the Buyers or to the Brokers.

(f) Every notice of appropriation shall be open to correction of any errors occurring in transmission, provided that the sender is not responsible for such errors, and for any previous error in transmission which has been repeated in good faith.

230 hostilities, or (e) strike, lockout or combination of workmen, or (f) riot or civil commotion, or (g) fire, or (h) ice,
231 or (i) Act of God, or (j) unforeseeable and unavoidable impediments to transportation or navigation, or (k) any 232 other event comprehended in the term "force majeure".
233

234 Should Sellers' or Buyers' performance of this contract be prevented, whether partially or otherwise, by an Event
235 of Force Majeure, the performance of this contract shall be suspended for the duration of the Event of Force
236 Majeure, provided that claimant shall have served a notice on respondent within 7 consecutive days of the 237 occurrence or not later than 21 consecutive days before commencement of the shipment period, whichever is 238 later, with the reasons therefor.

240 If the Event of Force Majeure continues for 21 consecutive days after the end of the shipment period, then 241 respondents have the option to cancel the unfulfilled part of the contract by serving a notice on claimants not 242 later than the first business day after expiry of the 21 day period.

243
244 If this option to cancel is not exercised then the contract shall remain in force for an additional period of 14
245 consecutive days, after which, if the Event of Force Majeure has not ceased, any unfulfilled part of the contract
246 shall be automatically cancelled.

247
248 If the Event of Force Majeure ceases before the contract or any unfulfilled part thereof can be cancelled, claimant
249 shall notify respondent without delay that the Event of Force Majeure has ceased. Sellers shall be entitled, from 250 the cessation, to as much time as was left for shipment under the contract prior to the occurrence of the Event of 251 Force Majeure. If the time that was left for shipment under the contract is 14 days or less, a period of 14
252 consecutive days shall be allowed.

254 The burden of proof lies upon claimant and the parties shall have no liability to each other for delay and/or non-
255 fulfilment under this clause, provided that claimant shall have provided to respondent, if required, satisfactory
256 evidence justifying the delay or non-fulfilment.

257 258 19. NOTICES

259 All notices required to be served on the parties pursuant to this contract shall be communicated rapidly in legible
260 form. Methods of rapid communication for the purposes of this clause are defined and mutually recognised as: -
261 either telex, or letter if delivered by hand on the date of writing, or telefax, or E-mail, or other electronic means,
262 always subject to the proviso that if receipt of any notice is contested, the burden of proof of transmission shall 263 be on the sender who shall, in the case of a dispute, establish, to the satisfaction of the arbitrator(s) or board of 264 appeal appointed pursuant to the Arbitration Clause, that the notice was actually transmitted to the addressee. In 265 case of resales/repurchases all notices shall be served without delay by sellers on their respective buyers or vice 266 versa, and any notice received after 1600 hours on a business day shall be deemed to have been received on the 267 business day following. A notice to the Brokers or Agent shall be deemed a notice under this contract.

268 269 20. NON-BUSINESS DAYS

270 Saturdays, Sundays and the officially recognised and/or legal holidays of the respective countries and any days,
271 which GAFTA may declare as non-business days for specific purposes, shall be non-business days. Should the time
272 limit for doing any act or serving any notice expire on a non-business day, the time so limited shall be extended until 273 the first business day thereafter. The period of shipment shall not be affected by this clause.

274 275 21. DEFAULT

276 In default of fulfilment of contract by either party, the following provisions shall apply: -

277 (a) The party other than the defaulter shall, at their discretion have the right, after serving notice on the defaulter to 278 sell or purchase, as the case may be, against the defaulter, and such sale or purchase shall establish the default price.

279 (b) If either party be dissatisfied with such default price or if the right at (a) above is not exercised and damages
280 cannot be mutually agreed, then the assessment of damages shall be settled by arbitration.

281 (c) The damages payable shall be based on, but not limited to, the difference between the contract price and either
282 the default price established under (a) above or upon the actual or estimated value of the goods, on the date of 283 default, established under (b) above.

284 (d) In no case shall damages include loss of profit on any sub-contracts made by the party defaulted against or 285 others unless the arbitrator(s) or board of appeal, having regard to special circumstances, shall in his/their sole and 286 absolute discretion think fit.

287 (e) Damages, if any, shall be computed on the quantity appropriated if any but, if no such quantity has been 288 appropriated then on the mean contract quantity, and any option available to either party shall be deemed to have 289 been exercised accordingly in favour of the mean contract quantity.

290 (f) Default may be declared by Sellers at any time after expiry of the contract period, and the default date shall then 291 be the first business day after the date of Sellers' advice to their Buyers. If default has not already been declared then
292 (notwithstanding the provisions stated in the Appropriation Clause) if notice of appropriation has not been served
293 by the 10th consecutive day after the last day for appropriation laid down in the contract, the Seller shall be deemed 294 to be in default and the default date shall then be the first business day thereafter.

296 22. CIRCLE

297 Where Sellers re-purchase from their Buyers or from any subsequent buyer the same goods or part thereof, a circle
298 shall be considered to exist as regards the particular goods so re-purchased, and the provisions of the Default Clause
299 shall not apply. (For the purpose of this clause the same goods shall mean goods of the same description, from the 300 same country of origin, of the same quality, and, where applicable, of the same analysis warranty, for shipment to the 301 same port(s) of destination during the same period of shipment). Different currencies shall not invalidate the circle.
302 Subject to the terms of the Prevention of Shipment Clause in the contract, if the goods are not appropriated, or,
303 having been appropriated documents are not presented, invoices based on the mean contract quantity shall be
304 settled by all Buyers and their Sellers in the circle by payment by all Buyers to their Sellers of the excess of the 305 Sellers' invoice amount over the lowest invoice amount in the circle. Payment shall be due not later than 15
306 consecutive days after the last day for appropriation, or, should the circle not be ascertained before the expiry of this 307 time, then payment shall be due not later than 15 consecutive days after the circle is ascertained.

308 Where the circle includes contracts expressed in different currencies the lowest invoice amount shall be replaced by 309 the market price on the first day for contractual shipment and invoices shall be settled between each Buyer and his 310 Seller in the circle by payment of the differences between the market price and the relative contract price in 311 currency of the contract.

312 All Sellers and Buyers shall give every assistance to ascertain the circle and when a circle shall have been 313 ascertained in accordance with this clause it shall be binding on all parties to the circle. As between Buyers and 314 Sellers in the circle, the non-presentation of documents by Sellers to their Buyers shall not be considered a breach of 315 contract. Should any party in the circle prior to the due date of payment commit any act comprehended in the 316 Insolvency Clause of his contract, settlement by all parties in the circle shall be calculated at the closing out price as 317 provided for in the Insolvency Clause, which shall be taken as a basis for settlement, instead of the lowest invoice
318 amount in the circle. In this event respective Buyers shall make payment to their Sellers or respective Sellers shall 319 make payment to their Buyers of the difference between the closing out price and the contract price.

321 23. INSOLVENCY

322 If before the fulfilment of this contract, either party shall suspend payments, notify any of the creditors that he is 323 unable to meet debts or that he has suspended or that he is about to suspend payments of his debts, convene, call or

327 Act 1986, or have a Bankruptcy Petition presented against him (any of which acts being hereinafter called an "Act of 328 Insolvency") then the party committing such Act of Insolvency shall forthwith serve a notice of the occurrence of 329 such Act of Insolvency on the other party to the contract and upon proof (by either the other party to the contract or 330 the Receiver, Administrator, Liquidator or other person representing the party committing the Act of Insolvency)
331 that such notice was served within 2 business days of the occurrence of the Act of Insolvency, the contract shall be 332 closed out at the market price ruling on the business day following the serving of the notice.

333 If such notice has not been served, then the other party, on learning of the occurrence of the Act of Insolvency, shall 334 have the option of declaring the contract closed out at either the market price on the first business day after the date
335 when such party first learnt of the occurrence of the Act of Insolvency or at the market price ruling on the first 336 business day after the date when the Act of Insolvency occurred.

337 In all cases the other party to the contract shall have the option of ascertaining the settlement price on the closing
338 out of the contract by re-purchase or re-sale, and the difference between the contract price and the re-purchase or 339 re-sale price shall be the amount payable or receivable under this contract.

340
341 24. DOMICILE

342 This contract shall be deemed to have been made in England and to be performed in England, notwithstanding any 343 contrary provision, and this contract shall be construed and take effect in accordance with the laws of England.

369 to enforcement, if required, of an Award of Arbitration)
370 (d) Nothing contained under this Arbitration Clause shall prevent the parties from seeking to obtain security in 371 respect of their claim or counterclaim via legal proceedings in any jurisdiction, provided such legal 372 proceedings shall be limited to applying for and/or obtaining security for a claim or counterclaim, it being 373 understood and agreed that the substantive merits of any dispute or claim shall be determined solely by 374 arbitration in accordance with GAFTA Simple Disputes Arbitration Rules 126.
